Pulses and waves for monotone reaction-diffusion systems

Martine MARION
École Centrale de Lyon, Écully, FRANCE
martine.marion@ec-lyon.fr

12 août 2022

We will discuss the existence of pulse solutions, that is, positive stationary solutions with zero limit at infinity for monotone reaction-diffusion systems in the bistable case. Such solutions exist if and only if the speed of the travelling wave described by the same system is positive. Applications involve problems in population dynamics or physiology.